A Call for Information.

The Stevens Point Pinery, speaking for the "National Democrata," or Buchanan men, in this State, thus refers to the mum policy practiced by the Democratic nominating Conventions :

make their opinious of the National Administra-tion, renders it indispensably necessary for the masses of the party everywhere to enquire as to the faith of the nomines of those Conventions. The course of those bodies, in the premises, ren-ders it more doubtfol, whether they are Demo-ders it more doubtfol, whether they are Democratic delegates fairly representing the bone and sines of the party in this State; although the respectable gentlemen nominated, may be, and we trust are, sound National Democrats, and if elected, will do their whole duty to party, the Administration and their country.

Their chief difficurty in the contest will be tofore the people, in which the conventions before the people, in which the conventions left them; for it is not to be supposed that Democrats will be expected to vote for men to go to Congeess who by a peradventure could be oppased to the National Democracy, in the exposition of it, as made by the Administration.

The Pinery proceeds to give what information it can on this subject. It fully endorses Judge DENR as a "National Democrat," and a zoalous supporter of the Administration: As to the nominees—the one for this District.

This at once relieves kim of the labe position the convention would otherwise have left him in, and secures for him the undivided confidence and support of the Democracy of his district: his election therefore is more than probable.

Now Judge LARRABET denies that he ever made such a declaration, and his immediate friends represent that he is a zealous follower of Douglas, and opposed to the Administration. Who can tell how he does stand?

THE SCHOONER KYLE SPANGLER. - This vessel, which, it will be remembered, went ashore last Fall near Sleeping Bear, and was given up as a complete wreck, has oeen thoroughly repaired, and is now loading with wheat in our river, and looks as good as new. Capt. Dill succeeded in raising her with his Palmor pumps, and she was towed in here last Spring, and has since been indergoing repairs at the ship yard of Capt, Jonze, under the supervision of Capt. Portar. Her repairs have been very thorough, and she now comes out in au good condition as ever, if not better. She has had new fastenings throughout, an extra and new keelson, and wherever a piece of iron or wood could be put, to make her stronger, it has been done. Extra clamps have been put under the deck-rails, and boited thro' each staunchiou, rendering her bulwarks unusually strong. Her cabin is new, the old one having been entirely washed away. The canvers and running rigging are also new, and with the paint and trimmings she looks as though she was just launched. The cost of the reprire was about $5,000. The owners are the Corn Exchange and Mercantile Mutual Insurance Cos. of New York, represented in Buffalo by John N. GARDINER Esq. The steamer Rounoke arrived off Aspinwall on the 20th, and would proceed immediately to Greytown.

The California election had resulted in the uccess of the Administration demogratic ticket by 6000 to 10,000 majority. The Legislature will have a large majority of Administration democrate. San Francisco elected the People's ticket for local officers, and a Republican dele-there and staked off claims, but it turned out a humbug.

Many persons who went to Frazer River and other diggings on British possessions, had returned to California.

The overland mail, via Salt Lake, arrived at Placerville on the 24th August.

The ship Geo. Howland, the first whaler of season, arrived there on the 27th of July, with a favorable report of the whaling ficot.

Advices from Oregon to the 21st of August are also received. On the 15th of shat month, Lieut. J. K. Allen with a party of 15 men made a night attack upon a body of Indiana, capturing 21 men, 50 women and children, a large number of horses and much other property. Lieut Allen was mortally wounded in the attack, and died the next day. Beyond this there had been no active demonstrations against the Oregon Indians. The preparations are being rapidly made for an effective campaign by the Government troope.

Judge Larrabee on the Stump. The News of yesterday publishes a letter from Oshkosh, giving a rose colored account of Judge LARRADER'S first appearance on the Stump ---The Judge "defined his position" on the Lecompton and Harbor and River questions-being identically those of the Republican Party, and diametrically opposed to the doctrines of the Democracy and of the National Administration. For the National Democrats to elect such a representative, would be folly. Occupying a hostile position on two important articles of the Democratic creed, he could exercise no influence with his political friends in Congress, or with the The secret of the Judge's position leaks out in the postsoript of the letter. Here it is: We are watching anxiously the progress of that gallant stateman, STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS. The contest there is a fearful one, and the democratic pulse of Wisconsin throbs wildly for his success. While we have work to do at home we are not unmindful of the Illinois contest, but God is with the right, and Democracy must win. The "Democracy" here referred to is what the Washington Union, the "National Democratic" party, and the BUCHANAN Administration, regard and denounce as treason. It appears that the Larrabur men sympathize with the Douglas insurrection and "are watching unxiously" to see it triumph over the Administration forces in Illi

WISCONSIN

WISCONSIN We will not undertake to analyze the reasons for this disproportion of lassne single persons, as compared with the married, but only state the fact. Whether the Benedicta are less liable to excitement, or the single more disposed to dissipating causes—whether the married become impervious to influences that harrow up the soul and brain of the uninitiated—each will have a theory of his own, as plain as the numerical proposition that two and two make four.

A further investigation shows us that of the total number in our own Asylum, 12 are widowers, 22 widows. The fact looks as though there was more feeling, more tender sensibility, a deeper affliction, or mental suffering, amongst those who lean upon the stronger staff of domestic assectiation.—Cincinnati Gazette.

England must have been eingularly blind to the progressive energy and enterprise of Russia, not to have seen that circumstances, and among the rest its own acquisitions in the East, were tending inevitably to the extension of the Russian Siberian frontier south of the Amoor, and ultimately to the great wall itself. It now seems that Russia has placed herself securely upon the great river of the Manchooria. An extended and free commerce by that river—such as Russio is known to have in view—will render necessary the sequisition of the whole of Manchooria, and of Mongolis too. On some fine morning, not far distant, the Times is destined to be still further amazed by learning, through adother annoying dispatch, by the Russian overland route from Chins, that this grand annexation is a fact accomplished. The United States will look with interest upon such an event. In the hands of Russia those immense countries would be open to our enterprise, and unlock to us a commercial mine of inestimable wealth.

The Proportion of Married and Single in the Insune Asylum.

in the Insune Asylum.

Few persons are aware—although old bache—lore and old maids are particularly interested in the statistical item—that of 337 persons confined in the Lick Run Lunatic Asylum, a very large proportion are unmarried, as compared with the married, the widowers and widows.—The facts furnish an unanswerable argument against "single bleasedness." For instance, of the total number, 337, no loss than 171 are strick—106 males and 55 fema'es. Of the persons married before being sent to the institution, there were 110 in the aggregate—52 males and 58 females—showing a considerable persontage in favor of those who have hed no fears of—

The unhappy London Times is just now in one of its crusty and querelous moods. The circumstances attending the adjustment of the Crina difficulties and the laying of the Atlantic cable have disturbed its equanizity amexingly, and thrown it jute a very unseemly and unamiable tatte of mind. As to the cable, the Times, is perhaps, half right in the catimate which it places upon the excessive jubilation and the nauseous flattery with which the New Tork sensation editors and the interested telegraphic operators have beep attered some gentlemen who have advertisely become so prominent in the matter. But there is no occasion for the ill nature and splenetic temper which it exhibits. A little goodnatured sattre might have done the New York wonderseekers good; for they, and not the American nation, are the usurpers of the cable fame. At any rate the Americane are too old to be scaleded outright. The characteristic or ultation of the New Yorkers over what they have assumed to be the success of the cable, moreover, is quite harmless. But the bitterest composition. H. R. R.

A Young Lady, at Stephenson New York, in the month of June, 1853, caught a had cold. On the 21st of Angust, sie, who chose to trust to diplomacy rather than to arms, have somehow gained their full abare of the recent concessions of China.

We, as well as Russin, are changed with having held a "position little diguided in the war-like pieparations," and even with being "rewards, ed for our efficious zeal in deling the part gobetween." The Times cannot be unaward—for the flact is notorious—that the part of the United States in the recent negotiations with China has been entirely above-board, and that not a step has been taken of which both England and France have not been fully cognizant by official communication. When Lord Clarendon invited our government to join the alliance of Great communication.
